BRICKOLINI: The Brickolini family has always stood for culinary excellence. Today there is a pizzeria named after the Brickolinis in the LEGO Land Theme Park in Carlsbad, California. Papa Brickolini runs today's (Year: 2000) pizzeria. It was Papa's Papa who invented pizza or, at least, he made it in such a way that it was like you were tasting it for the first time. Papa has perfected the art of pizza making with Mama. It is rumored that Mama's ancestors invented music, which could be true. Mama plays the piano quite well. It is said that before Mama married Papa her name was Clickoff, which is the Royal House of Buildovia. Mama and Papa are the proud adoptive parents of Pepper.

2000	Papa Brickolini Pizza Chef Good dancer Grumpy but funny		Mama (Ivana) Brickolini Assistant Chef Loves music Plays piano Everyone's Mom
1900	Papa's Papa Experimented with new recipes	Papa's Mom Sauce expert	Clickoff, Nicoli Ivanovich Concert Master of the Paris Opera	Brickoffski, Dulcenya A Diva with the Paris Opera

1800	Antony Brickolini Sailed to LEGO Island with flattened food and special sauce.		Archduke Ivan Clickoff of the Royal House of Buildovia
1500	Marco Brickolini Brings back flattened food from China		Prince Ivan Istokivich Clickoff of Buildovia
1000	Brickolini, The Duke of Oil		Ivan Click the Terribly Musical/ Tartar Prince
Year 1	Og Brick Smashes a tomato on a leaf, serves it up and everyone likes it!		Og Click Banged two rocks together and everyone was impressed

BRICK: The Brick family has always stood for Law and Order. Nick and Laura Brick, brother and sister run a fine police station on LEGO Island. Max Brick is the son of Nick who represents the law in space. Their past is full of life and legend with stories of Sheriff Brick and Bat Brick.

2000	Nick Brick Good Guy Good Cop Good Memory Brother to Laura	Laura Brick Good Gal Good Cop Good with people Sister to Nick
1900	Officer Rick Brick One of the City's finest		Nora Brick Stay-at-home Mom, A cop's wife

1500	Sheriff Brick of the Black Brick Forest
1000	Good Knight Brick of The King's Guard
Year 1	Og Brick Kept saber tooth tigers out of the families cave

RONI: The Roni family has always been a mystery. They are explorers. Mac A. and Sandy Roni traveled near and far seeking interesting things and collecting strange foods and toys from around the globe. Their last known stop was in a headhunters territory. It is believed that they are Pepper's lost parents. No records show this but no records survived either. The Roni's have an exciting past. There's Rootin Tootin Roni who was a cowboy's cowboy and a true rodeo champ. There was Bologna Roni, a wonderful storyteller and travelling minstrel and many, many other Roni's too.

RED BEARD: The Red Beard family has always been known for their navigation skills as pilots, sailors but unfortunately all are utterly untrustworthy. Ferdinan Red Beard piloted several doomed cross-mountain airplane trips where no sign or cargo have ever been found. The Brick family are still puzzled by his reappearance. It was also alleged that the Bermuda Triangle myth was first reported by Lombard Red Beard, as a front for his supposed 'dirty brick' deals with the Brickster. Space Navigator Xavier Red Beard is believed to have been involved (although nothing has ever been proven) with the planned rescue mission to recover the Rock Raiders from deep space resulted in the 'mysterious disappearance' of the latest stars fleet space cruiser with all hands missing. Most everyone knows of the legendary Red Beard the Pirate and the missing treasures.

BULL: The Bull family has always been, well, bullies. It is a huge family tree of bully's and aggressors spread around the LEGO universe. You can trace the family back to Ogar the Bull (leader of the Visigoths who stole the Roman bricks) and forward to Space Commander Drexx Bull (Tyrant) and his charming wife Tyranula Bull (founder of the Tyrannical Academy that forced the Martians to live underground).

CLICKETT: The Clickett family is all about medicine. From year one with a shamanic start, the family pursued healing the mini-fig. From Shamans to magicians to blood letters to midwives to barber surgeons to the birth of modern LEGO medicine, the Clicketts have figured prominently. Dr. Clicketts dad was Dr. Clickett as was his dad Dr. Clickett. In the year 2000, Dr. Clickett and Mrs. Clickett gave birth to a healthy son.
They named him Doctor because it is inevitable.

Role	Background	Talent +	Weakness	Visual Traits
Cool Gadget-Girl that is the friend and confidant of Pepper, who at times, have sibling-like competition and at other times a supportive team.	Always above the norm in anything she does, Widget is the niece of the infamous inventor Professor Pickles. Widget has been Pepper's friend since day one. They met at a rollerblade competition. She beat him.	☆ Devoted Technology Enthusiast ☆ Nurturing Empathy ☆ Inventive ☆ Decorating ☆ Roller Blades Champ ☆ Reading: Actually likes technical manuals	☆ Elitist: Sometimes she will miss things because she thinks they're not cool enough. i.e. She won't see some movies or hear some music because if it's too popular, it can't be good. ☆ Gullibility. She believes the best intentions of everybody. This makes her kind of vulnerable to bad guys. ☆ Knows north, south, east and west but often gets left and right mixed up.	Very much the "Tom Boy" but no-doubt unmistakably a girl. Technology is all around and on her from talking watches to light sensitive glasses, etc. She loves the cutting age of fashion and technology

Special Phrases	Unique Character Traits	Special Interests/Hobbies
Widget, with her love of technology and all, will comedically point out basic scientific principles at work. For example, if someone should fall she'll say: "That's gravity for you!" Other times: ◉ "Talk about friction!" ◉ "I think I see a need for a simple machine."	She knows technology so well that it appears like she has some kind of telepathy with machines. She knows when they are about to do something and what's wrong when they don't work. Sometimes, if she touches a machine just right, it'll start up again	◉ Rollerblading ◉ Technology of all kind ◉ Decorating anything ◉ Singing (little known) Favorite Color: Purple Favorite Food: Sushi Favorite Instrument: Synthesizer and/or midi effects on computers like Noises as notes

Sample Scene: Imagine, if you will, that Widget is rollerblading about and Pepper shows up with a problem, I'm sorry, "challenge." It seems that the bridge has just been deconstructed by the Brickster and Pepper's got to catch the Brickster before dark. He's on the other side of the river. Pepper needs help to rebuild the bridge. This is just the kind of challenge Widget loves. She evaluates the real tasks in priority. It seems like catching the Brickster is first so she devises a way for Pepper to get across the river first that would be faster than rebuilding the bridge. She then considers:

One, making a ramp for Pepper to skateboard over or Two, string together some inflatables to float across on.

Sample Dialogue/Monologue: Consider the previously described "challenge" event.

RORY BLOCK	A hero in every sense of the word but perhaps in word only. Rory is either the bravest, strongest, toughest hero or the best storyteller of them all. Rory is strong, brave, clean and reverent...at least that's what he tells us. Somehow he always ends up appearing the winner in just about everything he does, even what he doesn't do. In reality, he stumbles into victory. He is as competent as a clown. For example, if he were to drop his hat he would probably spend the next 10 minutes or so trying to pick it up, kicking it away every time he reaches down for it; and when he finally grabs the hat, he accidentally knocks down a statue that falls on a criminal in mid-crime. Cat Attaway (more about her later) would capture the criminal but Rory is the one interviewed as the hero of the day. He always explains how he planned it all. Rory is not the brightest bulb in the marquee but somehow he ends up being in the right place at the right time. He is very full of himself in an endearing way. He loves being the center of attention. He, oddly enough, does succeed, thanks to Cat and he is quite pleased with himself. In any given conversation, he will somehow find a way to have it be about him. Despite all this, he is quite lovable.	Kinesthetic (physical) Slap-Schtick and Linguistic Humor

Role	Background	Talent +	Weakness -	Visual Traits
Action Hero and Comic Relief	The Block Family has always been a little off. LEGO is bricks not blocks, you see.	☆ Humor ☆ One-liners ☆ Comedic Stunts ☆ Slap Schtick ☆ Luck ☆ Promotion	☆ Thinking ☆ Planning ☆ Logic ☆ Accident Prone ☆ Pompous ☆ Vain	Strong rugged facial lines. Will sometimes wear medals that mean absolutely nothing. Favors hero attire.

Special Phrases	Unique Character Traits	Special Interests/Hobbies
Rory likes to hear himself talk, so often times you can hear him saying aside: " Testing 1,2,3...Testing my voice...hello, hello" Some common Rory phrases: □ "Reminds me of me somehow." □ "I like to think of it as..." □ " Works for me!" □ ..."And I'm very rarely wrong."	Rory's voice is engaging and authoritative. When he speaks, everyone tends to listen. Everyone, that is, except Cat.	◉ The sound of his own voice ◉ Dressing like a "hero" (Rambo, Cowboy, General, etc.) ◉ Stacking playing cards to make houses and things Favorite Color: Blue-ish Favorite Food: Sausages Favorite Instrument: Tuba and alto sax

Sample Scene: Imagine, if you will, Rory walks into a bank to get some brand new pennies. He is oblivious to the fact that a robbery is taking place. Everyone is lying on the floor. Rory thinks that it must be nap time and as he looks around, he notices that no one has a blanket and he can't nap without one. He notices the rug can be pulled up and used as a large blanket for everyone. The robber, with his back to the action, is filling up a bag with money. As Rory tries to pull up the rug; well, I'm sure you could see what happens next. A series of comedic pratfalls until the bad guy ends up rolled up in the rug.

Sample Monologue/Dialogue: Imagine, if you will, a conversation with a few mini-figs at an art gallery opening of an abstract artist. All comment on how cool the painting is and in steps Rory Block. He clears his throat and sticks his head in the grouping and speaks.

File #	Type	Location	Character	Animation	Line
	O.V.	Art Gallery	Rory Block	Butts into conversation	"My! My! You're right! What a gorgeous painting. Reminds me of me somehow. Look at that bold color. It's the same as my shirt!"

Name	Description	Intelligence Type
CAT ATTAWAY	Cat Attaway is as elegant, as cool, as silent, as athletic and as acrobatic as her name implies. She is our genuine heroine often resolving situations that Rory Block has created. She is not as impressed with Rory as everyone else seems to be. She really doesn't want the spotlight on her at all. Sarcasm and a dry wit tempers her charm. She'll deliver comments that are much more than double entendres, they are triple ones. Her voice and attitude can best be described as smokey velvet. She is somewhat shy and reserved with a great deal of style and class. She is, after all, Cat Attaway. Her life is film noir.	Natural, Instinctual and Kinesthetic (Physical) and Interpersonal

Role	Background	Talent +	Weakness –	Visual Traits
Action Heroine with glamour and style.	Her past is often veiled in secrecy. We know that she comes from money. Her manners are impeccable. It is rumored that she was once a high fashion runway model until the disappearance of her family. She avoids the topic. That's all we know. The rest is a bit of a mystery.	✯ Dry wit ✯ Acrobatics ✯ Martial Arts ✯ High fashion ✯ Educated ✯ Even the Bad Guys find her appealing	✯ Unsung heroine. She Can not and will not accept accolades or recognition ✯ Shyness ✯ Self esteem issues	□ A winsome smile □ High fashion accessories like pearls, silver, LEGO watch, etc. □ Says more with a look than with words .

Special Phrases	Unique Character Traits	Special Interests/Hobbies
Cat will often speak in riddles, metaphors and similes. for example: If she feels like she now knows you and no longer has to be so formal she'll say: " I believe we can take off the white gloves." When she says goodbye, she will often say:	She can move around silently/stealth behavior. Has a tough exterior but is way soft inside. Doesn't hold Rory in awe but she will set him up to win.	◉ Fashion ◉ Poetry ◉ Naps ◉ Aromatherapy Favorite Color: Black and Pearl

"Don't forget the back of your head."		Favorite Food: Asparagus (room temperature) Favorite Instrument: Oboe

Sample Scene: If you can recall the bank scenario with Rory Block, well, part of the scene that we didn't tell you about (but we are now) was that, in all the mayhem that followed, Rory got rolled up in the rug as well. Fortunately, Cat arrived in time to apprehend the bad guy who managed to get away leaving Rory all rolled up.

Sample Monologue/Dialogue: In the above scene, Cat knew that there was trouble at the bank because in the initial shuffle, a lamp was knocked over which tripped the alarm. Cat calmly walks in and waits by the door as the bad guy jumps over the rail for his exit.

File #	Type	Location	Character	Animation	Line
	O.V.	Bank Doorway	Cat Attaway	Waiting like a cat	"Nice of you to drop by. Heard you were tied up earlier. Running out of time? I'm sure the judge will give you some!"

Name	Description	Intelligence Type
DR. A. CADABRA	The magical master of good play, the Doctor knows all things LEGO. He knows, for example, how everything works because he has built nearly everything there is. He's deconstructed everything a few times too. The knowledge he offers is encyclopedic. More specifically: E: empowerment, N: newness, C: creativity, Y: you're in C: charge, L: learning, O: observation, P: play, E: explore, D: discovery, I: invent, C: construction. In short, he puts the "U" in fun. He loves to laugh and he is somewhat a mystery reminding some of a Zen monk only much, much funnier.	Linguistic, all-knowing and mystical

Role	Background	Talent +	Weakness -	Visual Traits
Good Play Guru/Master Teacher Show and Tell Expert	Unknown other than he's always been here since day one about a gazillion years ago	✲ Omniscient ✲ Infectious laughter ✲ Inspirational ✲ Warmth ✲ Supportive ✲ Creative	✲ Forgets the obvious answers to things. ✲ Often gets himself all twangeled up with explanations	Some say there is a little of him in every mini-fig. Rarely seen so descriptions vary.

Special Phrases	Unique Character Traits	Special Interests/Hobbies
He speaks with a LEGO bias ⊛ "See you later, Brickulator" ⊛ "Knock me over and call me deconstructed." ⊛ "The mind is a LEGO castle with extra bricks." ⊛ "Snap to it."	□ Boon Giver (a luck-bringer), a positive "trickster". □ All LEGO-knowing spiritual leader □ Will demonstrate oblique verbal instructions in concrete physical ways □ Loves to laugh and represents all aspect of "Good Play"	⊛ Construction ⊛ Deconstruction ⊛ Suggesting ideas ⊛ Barber shop quartets and Doo-Wop harmony singing Favorite Color: All primary colors Favorite Food: Angel food cake Favorite Instrument: Ukulele

Sample Scene: Bright light, a silhouette dramatically appears from the light and walks towards you and stops. Dr. A. Cadabra apologizes for the bright light and turns it off. He has arrived, he tells you, to give you some good news and some bad news. The good news is that he knows how you can make it across the huge canyon and he then demonstrates how the right angle of a ramp and the right running start would work.

Sample Monologue/Dialogue:

File #	Type	Location	Character	Animation	Line
	O.V.	Canyon side	Dr. A. Cadabra	Building a ramp and using it to run and leap from	" Sorry about the light. I'll have to fix that. Hello. Good news and bad news. The good news is I have a way to cross the canyon. Here, let me show you... (demonstrates) Now, the bad news. I prefer not to tell you the bad news. You'll find out soon enough. Remember, follow these instructions to the letter, more or less. See you later, Brickulator." (Turns on the light and disappears in it).

◉ Seize him and have him deconstructed!"	but does like Public Address systems, especially with thundering echo effects. OGEL is rarely seen and when he is seen it is usually far away or dangerously up-close.	◉ Limiting imagination ◉ Destruction ◉ Depression Favorite Color: The color of the brick most recently stolen. Favorite Food: Lima beans, liver and sour milk Favorite Instrument: Accordion

Sample Scene: A captured LEGO citizen is dragged in front of OGEL and is tortured until deconstructed by OGEL's off-key accordion playing.

Sample Monologue/Dialogue:

File #	Type	Location	Character	Animation	Line
	O.V.	OGEL Island	OGEL	Playing an oversized accordion	" Aaah...How sickly sweet. My pleasure is your deconstruction. Minions, crank up the volume!"
